Overview of meeting:

1. Introduction and Presentation of new topic – “The Ethics of Equity and Sustainability”
Colleen, Hannah, and Jennifer presented.
 2. LHIG members were asked to respond to the following questions:
 - What obligation do we have as a society to address the differences in health outcomes that currently exist?
 - What obligation does the health care system have to address the differences in health outcomes that currently exist?
 - What are the ethical issues related to aligning health services to the needs of the population?
 - What would our health care system look like if we aligned health services to the needs of the population without adding new resources?
 - What would our health care system look like (what would be doing differently) if we addressed the underlying causes of unequal health outcomes?

- Equity is complex social issue that requires more than just health care system to address) Who should the WRHA partner with to address inequities? Brainstorm and then prioritize.
 - As we move towards a more equitable health care system, what is the most important thing that you feel that the WRHA should consider/keep in mind?
3. Colleen shared what the next steps would be – second meeting on Equity to explore criteria for resource allocation/ re-allocation and communicating with the public about moving equity forward in the health care system. Report will be presented to Board at All LHIGs Meeting on April 27, 2016.

*notes from the discussion/input section of the meeting are included in the report – The Ethics of Equity and Sustainability (April 2016)
