

Definition/Description:

This indicator refers to the total population that attended school, college or university, either full-time or part-time (day or evening), during the nine-month period between September 2000 and May 15, 2001. Attendance is counted only for courses which could be used as credits towards a certificate, diploma or degree, therefore attendance for courses taken for leisure, recreation or personal interest are excluded.

Source:

http://www.wrha.mb.ca/howcare/decsup/files/population/Census_2001.pdf